

SOMETHING TO LOOK FORWARD TO . . .

HIWASSEE COLLEGE

MADISONVILLE, TENN 37354

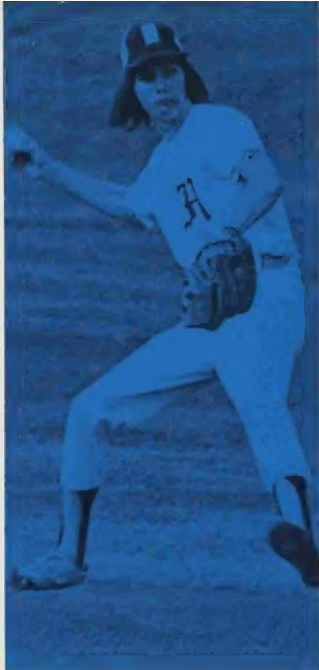

ABOVE: The happy days of college will be remembered forever.
 ABOVE CENTER: When the tigers get in a slump, we lose our fizz.
 RIGHT: Sharing an umbrella on a rainy day is the Hiwassee way.
 BOTTOM RIGHT: Concentration is fruitless when a lack of communication exists.

Socially,
Hiwassee is concerts,
movies, plays, banquets,
dances, formals, hayrides, horse shows,
carnivals, and pageants.

Every student regardless of religious denomination is considered a member of the Christian Student Movement,
the central religious organization on campus.

The student may also choose to become part of the Life Service Volunteers, Fellowship of Christian Athletes, or the Christian witness teams.

The Ichthus Center is a place where the religious organizations can meet offering a coffee house type setting.

EXTREME LEFT: We got a big kick out of women's intramurals.
 FAR LEFT: "Girl talk" helps us understand who we are -- even at a dance. LEFT: Who said one couldn't turn back the hands of time.
 BELOW: Campus Gold trio man the refreshment table.

SOMETHING TO LOOK BACK ON . . .

Hiwassee College actually began when the enrollment at Fork Creek Academy, a school for boys, increased beyond the capacity of the academy to accommodate students and was moved to Bat Creek Campground, the present site of Hiwassee Campus. Replacing and expanding the program of the academy, Hiwassee College was organized in 1849.

In 1850, Reverend Daniel Carter donated a tract of parcel of land containing seven acres more or less lying in the second township of Monroe County for the use of Hiwassee college.

Growing from the original grant of approximately seven acres to its present Campus of 50 acres and a farm of about 800 acres, Hiwassee College has been able to keep its doors open since 1849, except for a period of approximately four years during the Civil War.

Recreationally, Hiwassee is tennis,
basketball, baseball, volleyball,
football, golf,
archery, horseback riding,
and ping pong.

Monday at the school
 we started with a lesson in handwriting to show different musical groups.
 I made the room cheer and the pep band.
 All
 I became a little bit nervous to sing the song and dance.

ABOVE: They said this thing was supposed to make ditch-digging easy?! LEFT: Some dreary days the mind will not enable the hand to spell it out. BELOW: Hilarity and skill were demonstrated by the Harlem Globetrotters. ABOVE OPPOSITE: Crowning our campus is Buckner Memorial Church. BELOW OPPOSITE: Penny Large must be campaigning for some office!

IT'S SO HARD TO KNOW THE HAPPINESSES
OF A DAY
UNTIL IT'S TOO LATE TO APPRECIATE THEM

The paper includes phases of college life, engulfing such things as club news, sports, calendar or events to come, outstanding events which have occurred on campus, interviews with teachers, and editorials. Through this well rounded avenue of information, Hiwassee students are kept up to date and informed on all activities.

Phi Theta Kappa was created in 1918 at a meeting of Missouri junior college presidents who wished to form an organization that recognized superior students. Eight Missouri women's colleges comprised the membership of Phi Theta Kappa when it was chartered. By 1924 the society had placed chapters in co-educational junior colleges and had grown to include fourteen chapters in six states. In 1929 the American Association of Junior Colleges recognized the fraternity as the national scholastic honor society for junior colleges. Today Phi Theta Kappa is comprised of more than four hundred chapters in forty-five states, Washington, D.C., Puerto Rico, and the Canal Zone. Some of the accomplishments of the club include publication in a national horse bi-weekly, the building of jumps for classes, participation in major horse shows and several successful fund raising ventures. BAHAMA'S OR BUST

On Thursday, April 29, 1976, 37 Sophomore students and 3 chaperones left Hiwassee College on the trip of a lifetime. They had worked hard for an entire year to raise money to help defray the costs of a trip to the Bahama Islands. Early on the morning of the 30'th, the group arrived in Miami Beach, Florida, wide awake and alert. Midday, the 40 people boarded the ship, T.S. Flavia, for a trip that would remain forever in their memories. For three days, the people were typical tourists soaking up the sun as they enjoyed the exciting life they had always heard about. Sad they were to leave the islands, but happy nevertheless to see the United States again. Driving all morning after disembarking from the boat, the group arrived in Orlando, Florida, and checked into a motel. The entire afternoon was spent enjoying the pool. Bright and early the next morning the group traveled to the Magic Kingdom of Walt Disney World. The only regret was that there was not enough time to see everything. The group left Disney World at 2:00 and drove all evening, arriving at Hiwassee 2:00 A.M. Wednesday morning. This indeed was an experience long to be remembered and treasured.

RICK KENNEDY—MANAGING EDITOR
MICHELE MANN—BUSINESS MANAGER

"I can't be contented with yesterday's glories; I can't live on promises winter to spring. Today is my moment and this is my story; I'll laugh and I'll cry and I'll sing." So goes the last verse of "Today." It is a sad moment to take that last walk through the Hiwassee meadows, to have to say good-bye to a friend, or to break the last tie with Hiwassee College. So it is as I type this last page for the 1976 Hiwassee Yearbook. All of us will move on but, hopefully, not forget to take with us all the joys that are ours. There have been so many good times, so many invaluable experiences, so many helpful people. It has been my pleasure to have a part in such an undertaking. May this yearbook bring many happy memories to you tomorrow as you look back on all the "todays" you spent at Hiwassee College.

Ricky B. Kennedy
1976 "Hiwassee" Editor
